JUNIOR EUROPEAN JUDO CHAMPIONSHIPS

Oberwart 2015 – Austria

Individual: 18 - 19 September 2015

Teams: 20 September 2015

COMPETITION RULES

WORDS OF WELCOME

Sergey Soloveychik
President
European Judo Union

Dear Judo Friends,

It gives me great pleasure to welcome you on behalf of the European Judo Union to the Junior European Championships 2015.

Oberwart has a long and exemplary record of staging high quality and high level international judo events and I am confident that with the support of the Austrian Judo Federation these championships will be memorable for athletes and spectators alike. It is well worth noting that whilst many athletes may be making their way up the junior ladder, others will already be competing at senior international level. Therefore these championships play an important part in their preparations as may be witnessed for example by Georgia's Lasha Shvdatuashvili who followed his Junior European Championship win in 2011 by winning gold one year later at the Olympic Games in London.

I would like to wish to all our athletes competing here to experience something special, something life-enhancing and that they leave Oberwart enriched and empowered by having participated in one of the major events in the European Judo Union Calendar. I would like to encourage parents and judo fans to support the participants in the best traditions of the Judo Family.

Hans Paul KUTSCHERA
President
Austrian Judo Federation

Dear Judo Friends,

Austria has a long tradition with hosting European Championships and after having organised the Championships for Cadets (2005) and U23 (2007) in Salzburg, the Championships for Seniors in 2010 in Vienna and one for the Veterans in 2011 in Leibnitz, I am very proud to welcome the Juniors in Austria competing for the Junior European Champion Titles 2015.

The perfect place for staging this important event is Oberwart, where the European Open has been successfully held for the last years. Historically, Oberwart was a border town and the coat of arms shows a frontier-guard. Luckily, times have changed substantially and there is no need block somebody from coming to Austria any more. Quite to the contrary, Austria and Oberwart are looking forward to welcoming athletes, coaches, officials and fans from all over Europe, and therefore in the event logo we have changed the frontier-guard to a Judoka welcoming all guest with a bow.

On behalf of Austrian Judo Federation I welcome all guests and wish you a successful stay in Oberwart. I am convinced that the organising team of Austrian Judo Federation together with the European Judo Union will provide a great platform for the future stars of European Judo and that all visitors will have a great time Oberwart.
