COMPETITION RULES

WORDS OF WELCOME

Sergey Soloveychik
President
European Judo Union

Dear Guests, Participants and Judo Fans,

It gives me great pleasure and honour to welcome you to the 3rd edition of a unique event - the European Club Championships Golden League.

The city of Grozny has a history of successfully staging international championships and it is a measure of the region's strong interest in combat sports that it will now play host to European Judo's premier club competition.

Judo team events always deliver incredible action, tension and plenty of excitement, so it is with some degree of confidence that I anticipate yet another spectacular presentation from the participating teams. There will be a champion, but being part of this club event is in itself a major achievement and I congratulate all those teams who have made it to these finals.

I wish all teams the very best of luck and trust that they will enjoy, learn and benefit from this experience.

Vasily ANISIMOV
President
Russian Judo Federation

Dear friends!

I am pleased to welcome the guests and participants of the European Club Championships Golden League. The capital of the Chechen Republic Grozny for the first time hosts the tournament of the strongest teams of the Old World. This is one of the fastest-growing regions of the country, and the Judo school of this North Caucasian republic is well known far beyond its borders.

All the leaders of our National Team once started their way to the top of Judo in the gyms of regional clubs. Today they glorify Russia on the world tatami.

On behalf of the Russian Judo Federation I express my deep appreciation and gratitude to the Government of the Chechen Republic and personally to its Head Mr. Ramzan Kadyrov for the opportunity to hold the main club tournament of the European calendar in Grozny.

I am sure that this competition will be held at the highest organizational level and the fights of the world's strongest athletes will gift the pleasure to their fans.
