

JUDO FESTIVAL 2023

Kids & Family Camp

Adapted Judo Camp

Porec – Croatia

June 10-21, 2023

This year's Judo Festival program will include six events and will last from June 10 until June 21. From Olympians, top judo competitors, to children and judokas with various abilities. From the latest findings in science to concrete knowledge that will strengthen the capacities of judo clubs. The Judo Festival is a unique event that will reunite the large judo family and offer a variety of content for everyone.

17 – 21 June - Kids & Family Camp

Judo Festival is a great opportunity to spend five judo days with your family. In addition to judo training for children and parents, a variety of other workshops appropriate for children's ages are planned. Training with Olympians, creative workshops, educational workshops, and STEM workshops will be part of the Kids & Family Camp.

18 – 20 June - Adapted Judo Camp

Adapted judo camp will gather judokas with different types of disabilities. In addition to judo training adapted to every judoka, the plan is to hold executive workshops for coaches as well as additional activities for judokas with disabilities.

Additional events:

11 – 12 June - Workshops for clubs organized by the Croatian Judo Federation

The idea of the workshops is to help judo clubs in their development and to provide them with concrete skills in the areas that they have stated that they want to learn. These workshops will cover pedagogy, psychology, social network management, injury prevention, sports bandaging, etc. There is a possibility of organizing these workshops in English.

19 – 20 June - Scientific & Professional Conference – "Applicable Research in Judo"

The conference is conceived as an international meeting of Judo experts in all fields (scientific and professional). Any judo coach, expert, or researcher involved in Judo may submit a proposed contribution for consideration.
