

European Championship for Clubs Men

Competition Rules 2011

1. ENTRIES

Starting in 2011 the European Judo Union will organise the European Championships for Clubs similarly like the European Championships for Teams of the nations.

Each EJU Member Federation which has an official qualification system (minimum one day national championship, or league system championship) can enter the teams who are the medallist of the last finished championship (before the deadline of ECC numerical inscription). The medallist from the last European Championships for Clubs for men are direct qualified. Their National Federations can use the place/places for other teams.

Members of the EJU are the National Federations. Therefore, entries can be only made by the EJU National Federations for each of their clubs. EJU strongly suggest having a representative person of the National Federation in the Organising Committee. The dates of entries are:

- Numerical entries latest on 25th of April 2011. This entry is to confirm the participation of the club, signed by the National Federation and President of the Club, without the number and names of the competitors. According to this information, the clubs can bid for the organisation of the championship.
- Nominative entries of the competitors on 1st August 2011. This entry is to confirm all competitors can take part in the championships. This competitors list is not limited for domestic and foreigners.
- Championship entries on the day of weigh-in and the championship day. This entry is to confirm that minimum 3 and maximum 10 competitors are representing the club in the championships. This registration list allowed the competitors to take part in the contests, and have to be part of the nominative entry.

The entries are the official documents and no other changes/additions will be accepted without exception in any case.

The numerical and nominative entries have to be sent to the EJU General Secretariat (contact data: 37, Marina Court, Giuseppe Cali' street, Ta'Xbiex XBX 1421, Malta, phones +356 2731 0463, fax +356 2540 1186, email gs@eju.net). The championship entries have to be hand over to the EJU Sports Delegate, before the weigh-in.

In order to participate in a competition of the European Championships for Clubs, a judoka must be an authorised member of the club, according the rules of the National Federation the club is representing. In one ECC year, one judoka can compete in ECC just for one club.

2. COMPETITION FORMULA

The ECC will be one day competition for 16 or less teams. In case more than 16 teams have a numerical inscription, EJU will make a decision according the number.

The ECC should be organized on minimum 2 mats up to 16 teams. If there are more than 16 teams, 3 mats should be available.

One match consists in one round of 5 contests in 5 categories. During each team match, minimum 3 competitors have to represent on the mat, the country the National Federation the club is representing.
