The Shota Chochishvili Judo Academy stands as the principal training base of Georgia's national judo teams across multiple age categories. It serves not only as a daily high-performance preparation center, but also as the strategic hub where elite athletes refine their technical, tactical, physical, and psychological readiness ahead of major international competitions.

Over the years, the Academy has produced numerous distinguished judokas who have successfully represented Georgia on the European, World, and Olympic stages, reinforcing the country's strong legacy in the sport. Its infrastructure supports both professional training camps and official competitions, with a spectator capacity of approximately 700 seats, enabling it to host national and international events in a fully equipped, competition-ready environment.

6. TRANSPORTATION

Airport: Tbilisi International Airport

Cost: Free

7. CAMP ACTIVITIES

1. Daily Training Session: led by distinguished judo Olympians, the participants will have the chance to enhance their skills and learn from the best in the field.
2. Creative Workshop: a creative workshop will be organised, where participants can engage in making fan props and express their artistic side.
3. European Judo Championships Seniors: participants will have the privilege of witnessing the final block of the European Judo Championships Seniors, providing them with an inspiring and memorable experience.

The EJU believes that this camp will not only contribute to the technical development of young judoka but will also provide them with a unique opportunity to be inspired by a top-level judo competition and to see their heroes compete in front of their very eyes.

The Kids Camp also allows for the development of international friendship between young judoka, fostering a cross-cultural understanding. We look forward to the active participation of all National Federation, clubs and judo enthusiasts in this event.
