2014 JUDO
IJF WORLD JUNIOR
CHAMPIONSHIPS

FT LAUDERDALE, FL, USA - OCTOBER 22-26, 2014

Marius L.
VIZER
IJF President

The best young judoka in the world are making their way to Miami, USA, for their most important event of the year, the Junior World Championships, Miami 2014.

The event is our second and final World Championships of 2014 and represents the penultimate challenge for our most promising judoka before stepping up to the senior stage. The last Junior World Championships were held in 2013 in Ljubianja, Slovenia, and we saw numerous judoka move up to perform well at the senior Worlds in Russia.

We are expecting a very high level entry and I am sure the event will once again prove to be one of the highlights of the World Judo Tour.

Our hosts, USA Judo, successfully hosted their first Grand Prix last year in Miami as well as the Cadet World Championships. We must thank them for their desire to develop judo across the country and congratulate them for their tremendous delivery of high-profile events.

On behalf of the IJF and myself, I wish good luck to all of the countries and athletes. I wish them to show what is best in judo, in the respect of the rules and the traditions of our sport.

Mr. Lance
NADING
President of USA

Dear Presidents,

Greetings to all from the United States of American and the USA Judo family ! We are honored that the International Judo Federation, under the leadership of Mr. Marius Vizer, has once again selected one of our beautiful cities in the USA, Ft. Lauderdale, Florida to host the 2014 edition of the World Junior Championships.

We welcome all delegations from throughout the world to Ft. Lauderdale Beach, famous for its beautiful beaches and Spring break gathering of College students.

The competition venue will be the nationally famous Greater Ft. Lauderdale Broward Convention Center, located within a few feet of Port Everglades and less than 2 kilometers from the Ft. Lauderdale beaches.

We welcome all of the great Junior athletes from around the world to the USA and also welcome all of our referees and technical officials, and coaches who will help us make this event a great success.

Lastly, welcome to all of the parents and friends who will have travelled far and wide to enjoy the beautiful Florida weather and the great competitions that these IJF World Junior Championships will offer.

Mr. Jose H.
RODRIGUEZ
CEO of USA Judo

Lastly, we want to thank our sponsor; Broward County Convention & Visitors Bureau, who have been gratuitous in helping host these World Championships in the beautiful Broward County Convention Center.
