World Judo Tour

GRAND SLAM
Tuymen, 2015

Marius L. VIZER
IJF President

The IJF World Judo Tour is set to return to Russia for the first time since last year's World Championships as the world's elite judoka visit the familiar location of Tyumen for the second Grand Slam of 2015.

Tyumen staged a very successful first Grand Slam last year after the long-standing Russian event arrived in Siberia following many years in Moscow.

Judoka were at their best at the first Grand Slam of the year in Baku in May and now all the attention is on Russia's annual showpiece which is now the most important event ahead of the 2015 World Championships in Astana, Kazakhstan in August.

The Russian Judo Federation are vital members of the judo family and their team's storied success is matched by the efforts of their staff and organisation as a whole.

I commend the Russian Judo Federation's close collaboration with the IJF and together we will continue to drive the sport forward in this country and beyond. I wish good luck to all judoka, coaches and the staff and referees. The IJF team will be here to support you throughout the competition and I wish you all a successful stay in Tyumen.

Mr Vasiliy
ANISIMOV
President
Russian Judo
Federation

Dear friends!

Once again, the strongest judokas of the planet are meeting in the Russian city of Tyumen. The tournament "Grand Slam" is the second in this yearly calendar. World judo leaders – expectants of the coming Olympic Games-2016 in Rio-de-Janeiro will gather on the tatami in Russia.

We will see the fights between experienced and young athletes, the struggle for leadership in each weight category.

I am sure that every victory will be not only the moment of sports success, but it will be another evidence, that «Judo» - is not just a kind of sports, but it is also an art, an especial culture, which unites people around the world.

I would like to express my thankfulness to Mr Marius Vizer, the President of the International Judo Federation and to the members of the IJF for their support in the organization of such an important sporting event in Russia.

Implementation of "Grand Slam" – is the responsible and honorable mission for the Russian Judo Federation. The tournament was held in Moscow almost a quarter of a century, and last year it "moved" over the Ural mountains to Tyumen.

We have made every effort to maintain and even improved the high level of this event organization.

I hope that all the guests and participants will get only positive emotions in Tyumen and will keep the pleasant memories of the trip in this Russian region.
