3. Important Information

Before Travelling

Passports must be valid for at least 6 months from the date of arrival.

- Check host country entry requirements and airline requirements (if applicable).
- Check if you need a visa, and if yes, request it from the LOC according to the details in the Entering the host country section.
- Send travel information (arrival and departures) to the LOC.
- Book accommodation with the LOC.
- Upload a signed individual IJF Liability Release Waiver 2023 to my.ijf.org
- The form can be found at: covid.ijf.org or in EJU Calendar for the respective event.

Entering host country

Each individual is responsible to ensure they follow the entry rules (passport validity, visas, entry permission letter, COVID-19 etc.) for the host country. Entry rules may be subject to change, the current information can be found here: <https://mijnvraagovercorona.nl/en/plan-je-reis-naar-nederland>.

Insurance

It is the responsibility of each participant to ensure that in addition to their normal insurance they have sufficient insurance in place to cover any COVID-19 related costs, including repatriation. The LOC of the event and the EJU accept no liability for any claims relating to cancellation of the event due to COVID-19 or medical costs for any COVID-19 related illness that may affect them during the event.

4. Venue

9. Responsibility of the Federations

The athletes will train under the full responsibility of their National Federations. Each National Federation is responsible for insuring its judoka against 'injury and third part risk (public liability)' during the period of the camp. The European Judo Union and Judo Bond Nederland decline all responsibility.

10. Accreditation

At arrival to Hotel Papendal the delegation manager takes all documents to register the total delegation on the OTC-desk, to confirm the entries of all athletes and officials and accommodation payment. After that everybody has to be checked-in at the Hotel Reception Desk. No room change is allowed.

Very important: Each National Federation must be represented by a team leader or coach responsible for registration of ALL athletes from the respective National Federation, regardless club or other membership. Every National Federation will be accepted for accreditation only once, when all entries and payments can be confirmed at the same time.
