

Vienna, October 19th 2021

Judo Austria is currently looking for:

National Team Coach Elite
full time, starting date January, 1st 2022

Please submit your CV, a dossier of documentary evidence confirming your eligibility and a detailed concept (2-4 pages) and send it to jobs@judoaustria.at not later than November 21st 2021.

→ What we offer:

- Full time position
- Permanent contract with regular evaluation of performance with regards to the Olympic Cycle (2024), starting date January, 1st 2022
- Gross minimum annual salary based on full time position of 50.000€ with readiness of overpayment depending on qualification and experience
- Professional training conditions
- Open minded work environment, prepared for team players
- Place of employment: Linz

→ What we expect:

- Individual development of our Olympic Team athletes focusing on an extensive specialisation of their technical-tactical profiles and physical condition on international level to win medals at European-, World Championships and Olympic Games
- Close collaboration with the coaching team under leadership of the headcoach
- Cooperation with National-, Regional- and Club Coaches
- Planning, supervision, control, organisation and execution of training and competition activities
- Execution of trainings at the allocated performance centre
- National and international travel activity
- Constant visit of all performance centres of Judo Austria
- Contribution to the high performance - and educational concept of Judo Austria
- Regular reporting to Sport Director and Executive Board
- High level of organisational skills

→ Your profile:

- Representing judo values on and next to the tatami
- Concluded coach education
- Comprehensive, practical expertise of Judo (technical and tactical abilities) and knowledge of the current development in international, competitive Judo on the highest level (IJF World Tour, European-, World Championships, Olympic Games)
- Strong ability to plan, organise, control and execute multiannual cycles in high performance judo
- Several years of experience to coach at a leading, exposed position in high performance judo
- Ability to recognize and analyse complex athletic connections
- Effective communication skills
- Striving for continuous improvement leading to excellent performance, ability to work on own and as a team
- Ability to recognize and de-escalate conflicts
- Able to communicate in English, German is an asset
- Computer skills
- Capable of partaking in an extensive travelling schedule (national and international) and working on weekends
- Driving license B
- Criminal record not older than three months
- Full covid-19 vaccination due to increased close contacts and high travel activity

→ Who we are:

Judo Austria is the official association of Judo in Austria and one of the most successful federations at Olympic Summer Games. There are 9 regional federations, approx. 200 clubs and 25.000 active members doing recreational and professional judo.

We are looking forward to receiving your application!